“ Heaven def received an angel. I knew Tim since I was 12 and he was close to 20 then. He had the coolest ford escort and was always just a great neighborhood guy that would be out and about on certain days and would drop you off at our bus stop and mornings that were cold would chill at the stop and we would pile in his car to keep us warm til the bus came and we would all run out like the clown car. Hilarious. But we were warm. As I grew up his love of mini trucks was something I loved. He had one of the coolest trucks and was always someone to help you with your car or give you a hand any possible way. As I became older. He became a friend to cut up with and play cards and always a blast to play spades ♠ with. May your family take ease in knowing you no longer are struggling and are free from the ailments of this world and soar with the angels in heaven. One love brother
