“ Toby was a kind hearted genuine person. He would take anything negative situation and always find a positive in it. He was a great man, friend and dedicated to his wife Angie and his kids. I remember helping them plan their wedding a few years ago and he was so nervous. Not because he was getting married he was kind overjoyed in marrying the love of his life Angie. I remember the night of Angie and Toby's gender reveal of their second child, when they cut the cake and it was blue his face was priceless. Toby had a heart of gold and his smile, laughter and jokes would fill the room. If I could have one more of his famous hugs right now I wouldn't let go. We lost a good man, but I know he's watching over us especially his sister Valerie, his mom, brother and his wife Angie and the kids. Rest In Peace my friend, you are gone but definitely not forgotten.

“ The day I gave Toby the keys to his & Angie's new rental house he was so excited he asked if we could take a "selfie" picture in front of the house holding the keys up so that he could send it to Angie since she couldn't be there that day. He was a really kind, good-hearted man who loved his family. ❤️🙏
