“ Even though Tony and I went to the same high school, he was in my brother's class, meaning I was ahead of him by a few years, so we never really got to know one another. We did, however, become friends on Facebook many years later, and I think, through Tony's postings and his replies to me, I came to know him fairly well, and I learned that Tony Chapman was a genuinely good, decent human being with a strong faith in God. I will greatly miss his communication via Facebook, and his passing has left a void in the universe which can never be filled. However, I know he is now at home with his Lord and reunited with loved ones who journeyed there before him. May he rest in peace.
