The Somma's are going to miss our dear friend. Our favorite times were when we had the Senior's over to our house and he would come and minister to all of us..... He was unselfish, always giving to others. We truly loved him. When he knew someone was in need, he would come up to me and put $$$$'s in my hand to share with them. He had a giving spirit..We know he is having a grand reunion with his dear wife and daughter.....Our Lord surely greeted him with open arms .

Such a precious sweet man. He always had a warm smile for everyone, always so kind. The pictures of him as a young man remind me of Jon Erik! Our prayers are with the family as you have lost a wonderful father and grandfather. He touched many lives and won't be forgotten.
