“ We all were at Nanny’s and drew a hop scotch on the driveway. Trent had never played before, he was so excited to play and we got so tickled at him sticking his leg out to hop. Then we played four square, Trent said, “this is awesome “. He had such a good time and it was fun to watch him. He will be remembered and in our hearts always.

“ Heard this sweet young man sing several times in Newnan. Once was at the old Twilight bar. During break, I was standing outside and Trenton came up to me with a big smile on his face and a swagger in his walk and said “Ma’am, thank you for coming to my show... Did you bring any single friends?” I replied “Trenton... Honey do you know how old I am? I said I’m almost 50 years old.” He said well don’t you have any 18-year-old single friends?” 😂😂😂❤️🙏

“ I remember a few years back hearing this little guy sing. He was awesome. I don't remember the time nor place. Just that this little dude sounded awesome. I wish he had continued on. Please don't try to make sense of this. Because there can be no sense made of it. It, I suppose, is just up to him and God. Whatever Trenton was wrestling with, well. God got him now. Believe that. Fly high. You are free.
