“Please accept my very sincere condolences and deepest sympathy, my heart really goes out to the entire family. It is with warm words of encouragement and of hope that I am writing you today. With our faith, hope and confidence in God's word the Bible we know that what he promises will come true. The Bible promises: Your dead one's will live again...They will rise up. Also: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth (Ish 26:19; Ps 37:29). Yes, Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our dead loved one's. Jesus Christ himself said: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."---John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15. therefore, when the enemy death strikes and our grief is great even though we have the hope of a resurrection it does not show a lack of faith or of weakness to cry. Yet, because we have confidence in the resurrection hope, as we draw close to God in prayer the Bible promises that he himself will sustain us (Ps 55:22). I really hope this brings a measure of comfort to all of you (Rev 21:3, 4). Please feel free to contact me with any question you may have at (404)246-0624 or visit our website at www.jw.org”

“ I'll will miss my visits with Ursal. I was so excited when she turned 100 yrs old last Oct. I had never know anyone to hit such a milestone, and was so lucky to be ask to share in the celebration. I also don't think I'll ever make banana bread again without thinking about how much she enjoyed it when I made it for her. She will be missed.
