“ Mom you was one of the strongest, sweetest women I knew. You were a caregiver at heart! You was a fighter. You was cutting grass with a push mower at 80 yrs old. You was still walking 3 miles a day in your 80's.

I remember the times we would sit on the front porch and you would tell me stories of you're experiences in life. You would smile and say if you thought it was to long story .(To make a long story short. 😭 I would smile and say to myself. ( Mom this story just began)😭 I loved to listen you're stories.

She would always tell me, You are my daughter. I love you just like your mind. She always made me feel welcome.

You will be missed Mom!! I know you're running down the streets of gold. I will meet you there. You will have eternity to tell me those sweet stories. They will always make me smile when I think of you. I love you so much Mom!! You will be missed ❤️
