“ My family and I had the pleasure of getting to know Mrs. White when my mother-in-law was across the hall from her room at Southland. We loved to just sit with Mrs. White and listen to all the stories from her life. You could tell she loved her family! Mrs. White loved looking out her window and seeing the birds at her bird feeder, playing bingo (even when she didn't win much money that week), and coloring. We still have the coloring page Mrs. White autographed for us. You will be missed Mrs. White!!

“ We worked together at McCrorys, I often rode to work with her. I love to spend my time with her on our lunch break, she always help me laughing at her sense of humor. She was a very sweet lady and she was well loved by all. Reba Barge White Devlin
