“ Ms. Vera,
Yesterday marked three years you passed away. In the short six months I knew you, you were a blessing to my Mother and me and I hope by now you know what a blessing you were to us.

There is not a doubt in my mind that God placed you in our lives to help Mom transition to Brookdale--a difficult time for both of us.

My hope is that you and Mom had a glad reunion day just three weeks ago. I hope Mom and Day and you and your beloved Soldier Boy, Hayward are having a grand time in Heaven.

I think of you so much and treasure the time we got to spend with you here on Earth. I know that we will all be together one of these days. O what a Glorious Day that will be.

“ My God mother, I bless God for making me know you. You were my strength at work. You always make sure your comfort is ok. When I am thinking of doing anything for you to make sure you are ok, you also think of making sure I am safe , what a lovely mother, I am still not believing you have left me but there is one thing I know for sure that God is keeping you in his abode. Your memories will forever live with me. Who will say sweet words and bless me at work as you always do. I am typing in tears. I have lost a precious mother with a diamond heart. Miss Vee as I always call you, your comfort is still crying. My condolences to the Thames family, indeed we have lost a woman with a diamond heart. I will always have you at heart Miss Vee.

“ My condolences to the family of Vera Thames. May God’s peace and comfort be with each of you. I have had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Thames for the past six months at Brookdale. She has been a comfort and a joy to my mother and to me. I believe God placed her in our lives at a time we both needed a special touch of love and grace. I enjoyed her visits and her tales about Hayward, her “Soldier Boy”. In such a short time, I made a dear friend, whom I will greatly miss, as will my mother. Rest In Peace, Ms. Vera – I loved you very much.

She was always kind, but she was kind when my mother was dying and that meant the more than you can know. She said I could be her little girl. I am 58 so that was nice.

Sunday lunches after church-meat loaf or fried chicken or something else good and lots of cornbread for dad. Mom must have cooked thousands of cornbreads in her lifetime. And always some kind of dessert to finish the meal. I wish I could sit around that table with her just one more time...

I am sorry for your loss, your mother was always kind to me just like your father was too. They will be missed but take heart that one day we will all be together. Praying for you and yours.

*Allan, just heard about your precious mom, I am praying for you and family, but I know you are in the hands of the Lord. Vera is a wonderful woman, wife, and mother, and she is completely comforted, healed, and joyful with her Lord now. Haven't seen you or family for a long time, but I think of you often. My son Ronnie's middle name Brian was chosen because of you. You have always been a Godly good man. Sending many blessings and love to all your family.
