“ Dear Dick, Gary, Roger and Families, Words cannot express the feelings upon losing a parent. All of us were so lucky to have the parents we did, and the values, principles and expectations they set. I understand Aunt Dorothy died in her sleep. I hope the end came quickly and peacefully for her. Watching a loved one lose something daily, with no hope of recovery, and undergo a lingering death is hard. I hope this was not the case with Aunt Dorothy. Whenever I think of her and Uncle Bob (and you), I see Klinger Lake, Hop Inn, and Grandma Hopping. We had such glorious times, didn't we? You are in Cindy and my thoughts especially now. Love,
