“ I loved Ms. Doris and her family. She was apart of my Church family for most of my life, as well as my Sunday School and Choir memeber. I will forever be thankful for everything she taught me.

As sad as this parting will be, we all can be encouraged by one fact, and it makes all the difference. This wasn't the end of our being with Ms. Doris,.it was just an interruption. For those of us who are saved by the blood of Jesus Christ, we will be reunited with her on that glorius day when we too will be going home. My thoughts and my prayers are with the faimily

“ I am truly sorry to hear about the loss of Mrs Bird. Rest assured God will soon bring about a change. He will completely do away with all sickness, pain, and death in the near future. We then await the time when we will be able to welcome back all our lost loved ones again, here on earth, under perfect conditions. May these promises, along with the many memories, continue to comfort the family in the days to come.-Revelation 21:4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8.
