“ I am keeping your family in my prayers.
My mother was Gertrude Ellington Thomas. She was daughter of Minnie Bell Camp Ellington, Irving's sister.
I remember my mother talking about Virginia and I know that she would visit her. My mother died in 1991
Sorry I was not able to attend visitation or funeral but will keep your family i my thoughts and prayers..

“ Aunt Virginia was my favorite Aunt. She always made me feel special and treated me as she did one of her own boys. She was always there with a hug or a switch, when you most needed it and always knew which one you needed most. Thank you Aunt Virginia for making me feel special and helping me grow into a man.
My condolences to all my Cousins and their families.

“ Dear Family,
A very special lady has left and will be always remembered for her kindness to each one including the Tyrone people that she served lunches to.
Heaven is greater by her being there.
