“ In the late 80's I went to Clifftondale Center to see what they had for Seniors. I was told of a Homemakers Club, a group of Ladies that met each first Monday of the Month.

I became a member and every one was so nice, this one Lady told of Crafts they made one morning each week, Needless for me to say that was Vivian Cook and from that day lead a Friendship that lead to years of wonderful times Our Luncheons included our husband so Carl and Jim had no problem settling in . Enjoyed many trips furnished by the county for Seniors to different places of interest.

And Jim Passed away a few years later My Husband Passed away. Vivian Moved in with her son and later with Her Daughter We still were able to visit till we got older and driving was not a choice. But it did not stop us we had our Email so we still kept in touch My last Email was A few days before she got sick, I was able to Visit her on Sunday in the hospital , had a great visit, Looking forward to visiting my Friend in Heaven, I'm anxious to see what took the Lord so long in making her Mansion she thought. I know it will be Great as well as Mine. Rest In Peace My Friend.
