“ Many Sundays, after church, I would go to Sam's house for lunch and play all afternoon with Sam. Then we would attend the evening's young people's service, from which my parents would pick me up. Next Sunday, Sam would come to my house. Those were good times

“ Sam was a loved friend and a great boss. He helped me through some difficult times. He will be missed by Kathi and me. Jane we love you and continue to pray for you. Please be comforted by these words from the Lord. These things I have spoken to you that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world (John 16:33)

“ I am very sorry to hear of the loss of Mr. Williams. He was a very dedicated and faithful person, both in his professional life, but especially in his marriage. I imagine he was an amazing man. I won't pretend to know what you're going through, but what has helped me deal with the loss of those I love is turning to the Scriptures, something that has been a real source of comfort. One Scripture that gives me hope is Isaiah 26:19, which says, "Your dead will live... Awake and shout joyfully, you residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, and the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." I hope that this verse will also comfort you, and I hope you and your family can get through this difficult time. Please accept my condolences for the loss of your beloved husband, father. Sincerely, Meryl
