“ Wanda was always a beautiful soul. We were good friends in high school, but as time past we lost touch and thank goodness for Facebook we reconnected years ago. We will always have a empty space in our heart for her, but she was a good Christian woman and now she walks with her Lord whole again. Until we meet again sweet lady, I will always miss you. Sending up prayers for the family that God will wrap his arms around them and comfort them through these lonely days. Love you always, your friend Linda

I didn't know Wanda but felt like I did through her husband's (George Colgan) messages to me and several Atlanta friends from their marriage until the very end of losing his wife and love. We all prayed with him for Wanda and her healing and may she forever RIP. Thoughts and prayers to her other family members. May they be comforted knowing the devotion and love George had for their Mother. Jacki Watson
