“ So sorry for your loss of this sweet guy, Wayman. Had not seen him, since our school days at Campbell. We also attended grammar school together at Union City. He and Regina were friends of mine, share many memories together. Prayers and hugs to you all.

Wayman had such a sweet spirit about him. I always enjoyed being in his presence. He was always ready to talk about his grandchildren, whom he dearly loved. He was a member of our Sunday School Class before going to Line Creek Baptist but would drop by our class often very early and leave little gifts for us, especially at Valentine's and Christmas. He was always invited to our Sunday School home socials and we enjoyed being with him once again. He will be missed. Prayers for the family.

*Wayman 'Snuffy' Smith...What a beautiful spirit dwelt in that man!
I knew him since high school, and in all that time, I never heard a word of detraction or gossip issue from his mouth. Even as a youngster, he had a gentle way about him.
I was privileged to call him my friend.*

Rest in peace, brother!
