

Wayne Merideth

May 12, 1944 - August 19, 2021

Harold Wayne Merideth, 77, died peacefully on August 19, 2021, in the early morning hours at his home in Newnan, Georgia from complications of his 13-year battle with Parkinson's disease.

Wayne Merideth was born in Amory, Mississippi on May 12, 1944, and spent his formative years in the northeastern Mississippi community of Monroe County. Graduating from Amory High School in 1962 with high academic honors and as a National Honor Society graduate, Wayne was the first in his family to attend college. Initially enrolling at Ittawamba Junior College in Fulton, Mississippi, for his undergraduate curriculum, Wayne completed his college studies at Mississippi State University in Starkville, Mississippi, graduating with a degree in Accounting in 1967, again with academic honors as a National Honor Society graduate. Following graduation, Wayne joined the Army National Guard, completing basic training at Fort Leonard Wood Army Base near St. Robert, Missouri, and received an honorable discharge from the military in 1971.

Following graduation from college, Wayne worked for the Federal Government in Huntsville then moving to Georgia to accept a job as an auditor with the Federal Aviation Administration in College Park in January 1968, where he would work for 37-plus years in a variety of positions in auditing, accounting and payroll, before retiring as the Accounting Operations Manager in Atlanta's FAA Regional Office in 2004. Under Wayne's steady guidance, the FAA's accounting and payroll departments saw significant expansions and improvements during his almost four-decades of leadership.

Wayne was a true Southern gentleman in every sense of the word. Highly intelligent with a natural curiosity for life, possessing a keen wit and a quick smile, Wayne had an easy-going manner that instantly made others feel relaxed and at ease. A terrific conversationist, Wayne Merideth never met a stranger, and he had many friends both near and far. Wayne graciously gave his time and energy to all those around him, sharing his vast knowledge and life-experiences with others, and in so doing, enriching the lives of all those he met. With his beautiful heart and his kind, warm spirit, Wayne Merideth truly made a meaningful impact in the lives of all who knew him.

Wayne was an avid traveler, visiting all 50 states, and several countries internationally, including Canada, Mexico, Ireland, Scotland, Great Britain, France, Belize and Italy. Wayne especially enjoyed both day-trips and extended vacations with his grandchildren, including trips to Washington, D.C., Boston, Chattanooga, Atlanta and Orlando. Wayne had a great love for his family, and constantly showed his affection for his family with frequent dinners, holiday traditions, and annual family vacations.

Wayne Merideth was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. James Harold Merideth, and Ruth Chism Merideth, both of Amory, Mississippi. “ The best bonus daughter b/c I wasn't blood. He loved me the moment I met him. The day he said I could call him Dad was better than winning the lottery. We loved watching cornet movies, dancing, and picking at each other. I am a much better person with a little of his soul in my heart.

PS

It's hard to lose your Brother and former partner in crime. We have so many memories of the years we spent together. Wayne was always there for me when I was a little girl 4 years younger. We've had many talks about the old days and how we could survive the worst of circumstances put before us and laugh about it. He was definitely my hero and I will miss him everyday. Life will not ever be the same without him. ❤️ I love you Wayne.

“ Wayne and I were friends for 49 years. We met when we both worked at the OST Office of Audits. Our friendship continued at FAA until we both retired. After retirement, my wife Linda and I would meet Wayne and Linda for breakfast and reminisce about our days together. Wayne’s quick wit and sense of humor got me through many a day. My career would not have been near as enjoyable without him. He was a great friend and I will miss him dearly. Gary Moore

“ My heart goes out to all of you. My condolences at your loss. May His love enfold you, may His light surround you & may His peace touch you.
Wayne could always make me laugh & would tease me about “the bird of the quarter”. I had a Christmas sweater that would light up & play music. After I wore it the first time, Wayne would come around every October & show me his “spooky” Halloween socks. With that or anytime he would speak to me, he would always make me laugh & smile. I know he will be truly missed & my thoughts & prayers are with you all. 🙏🙏
