God I miss my Wendy so very much,. The world is lost now that you are know longer in it,. I Just don't understand why this is happening the world needs people like you in it,. So why has God taken you back I just can't see the reason for this what have I done to deserve this,. I am now Lost in this world with out you in it,. My Heart is broken beyond repair and my soul has been ripped out,. The only thing I have left is the promise of seeing you again one day until then God will keep you safe. Wendy k Anderson I love you so much and we will be together again one day

“ One of my memories of my niece Wendy is... years ago Mom and Dad would rent a house in Mexico Beach and the whole family would go down together and pile up in that small house and have the best time. Well on one of the trips we all went to the Merical Strip. Pat and me went on one of the rides and was starting to feel a little sick so we started to holler that we wanted off the ride. Well Wendy heard us and started crying and yelling for them to stop the ride and let us off. She was not very happy with the man controlling that ride!

“ Wendy was always one of my favorite cousins. When I was a baby she would always carry me around on her hip and played and took care of me. I remember spending most of the summers at the lake house with her riding in the boat watching her water ski... she was so good at it. I remember her and Corey taking me for a ride in Uncle Larry's red Camaro jamming out to the radio. I remember the trips to the Beach and going to the Merical strip riding all the rides with her and Corey. I always loved spending time with Wendy and she loved spending time with her family. I will always cherish these wonderful memories that Wendy blesses me with... but the most favorite memory is she was Always smiling and her laugh... I always loved to here Wendy laugh. Thank you my Wonderful Beautiful Cousin WENDY for all these special wonderful loving memories that you gave to me.... I have and Always will hold them in my Heart. 💕

“ Wendy was a care giver for many family and friends. She could design a flower bed that was perfectly beautiful. She loved all her family through thick and thin. Her Christianity was a beacon for others. I loved her and will never forget her. My baby, my teenager, a mother, a sister, a wife, a cousin, an aunt, a grandmother, a daughter and a friend. She wore many hats well. I love you and always will.
