“ Shannon,

I remember talking with you briefly at your mother's gravesite after her service. Our parents were friends through activities at Gordon Street Baptist Church and your and my involvement at Brown High.

My dad passed away a dozen years ago and mother continues on at age 94 despite poor health.

Please give Ellen, Marilyn, and Mark my best.

Hoping that you are well,

Jack Gee

“ I always thoroughly enjoyed Wilbur when visiting at Marilyn's house in the old days. He was always interested in us as young people. And, he was genuinely funny with great wit. My and our prayers are with the family.

*In Him,
Bo*
