“Mister A”, as he was called by students at Colonial Hills Christian School, was kind, encouraging, helpful, etc! He was always there to care for injured athletes. Parents & students will never forget the time he spent giving to others. Mr. A is also remembered for cutting grass, etc. at the various stadiums, so football games could take place. My family is very thankful for this dear man who selflessly cared for young people. What a great example of humility & service. Thank You, Mr. A!! Love & prayers for his Dear Family.
