“ Just heard the sad news of Bill. Like many of us who went to Transfiguration School, daily mass and years in class room... We have many memories of Bill. He was funny and I felt like a distant cousin because all of our families had close bonds back then. I will keep Bill in my prayers as well as his family.

“ I was blessed to know Bill Bazydlo through my dear friend, Sabrina Bazydlo, his wife. He loved his family deeply, and was a friend to all those in need of help. Thanks, Bill, for always helping me when I needed household help, like a broken front yard pipe and more!!! May you rest forever in the arms of our God.

“ Sabrina & Family,

My heart goes out to you. There really are no words. Bill was a character; I have so many fond memories of him growing up. OK, maybe some not so fond - like when he would beat me on a test & made sure EVERYONE knew it :). Whether competing for grades or irritating the nuns, he was a force to be reckoned with even then! I may not have seen him much over the years, but this I knew - he loved you all. It was always evident!! Take comfort in knowing he'll never be far, as he resides in all your hearts. ps to Bill. you didn't have to beat me to the pearly gates you know. God must have needed you more. Rest in peace cousin.....and no irritating the nuns up there. I'm sure there's more than a few who will remember you :) As will we all....

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to you. We are praying that God will comfort you and keep you through this sad time. Matthew 5:4

Bill touched our lives with his infectious smile, hearty laughter and his genuine love of family and friends. We will carry with us many good memories of Bill in the short time that we had the privilege of knowing him (one favorite memory being his traditional "Lighting of the Thanksgiving Turkey").

We look forward to seeing you again, Bill!

“ Dear Bazydlo family,

Just like the rest of the world, I am still coming to terms with the shock of what happened. One thing I know for certain, however, is that I have always felt like part of your family and Mr. B. had a huge part in that. Over the years I developed a special relationship with him and the family and I am so grateful to have been part of it. I am also grateful I was able to be at Abra and Mike's wedding and see Bill walk her down the aisle. I have never seen such raw, authentic love from anyone more than Bill, whether it be for his wife, his daughter, his sons, his grandchildren or a stray friend brought in to the home. Thank you for making me part of the family and thank you Mr. B. for loving and accepting me for who I am and making my life a little bit brighter. Heaven gained a truly extraordinary man this week.

“ I was beyond shocked at this sad news, and my heart and prayers go out to each of you. Sabrina, my neighbor, my friend, I love you, and cannot get my head around your loss. We shared so many good times in our early days & when our families were young. Bill knew how to have fun & how to throw a great party!!

My lifelong friend, you have my most sincere sympathy. You & Bill raised three amazing & caring children who will carry out the legacy of kindness you instilled in them.

Always know I am here for you, no matter how many miles away.

“ We are grateful to have known Bill and the entire Bazydlo family - a family filled with love, life, fun, character, and great passion.

Bill was an exceptional human being in so many ways - he did everything in a big way. He lived large and loved immensely. Bill's creativity infused so many facets of his life, both in work and in play. His legacy goes on in his family and those fortunate enough to have been touched by him. God bless Bill's family and bring them peace.

“ What to say in a circumstance like this is difficult to come up with. The death of a loved one is nothing anyone prepares themselves to face on a regular basis. However, what often appears to be overlooked during this difficult moments is the positive ways in which people have touched our lives in various ways. I will admit the times I saw my uncle were few and far between for reasons that mean little now but the things I remember about him the most were his room brightening smile, a constant chuckle and his sense of humor. Dziadek, Mimi, Mark and many others will be greeting him soon with open arms and till the time we are all reunited lets all cherish the memories we have of Bill in the mean time.
