“ I am blessed to have known and worked with Bill. Ever a thoughtful guy he was more so when debating complex issues always reminding us of that people are Involved. As we are reminded by Saint-Exupery, “It is only with the heart that one can see rightly; what is essential is invisible to the eye.” Drew

“ Bill has been my neighbor for many years. He had a huge heart of gold, and a gentle spirit. I never saw him when he wasn't smiling. He will be missed greatly by those who were fortunate to have him as a neighbor and friend. My condolences to your family.

“ I was glad to have met Bill on several occasions while visiting with his parents. He was the kind of fellow that when you met him you felt as though he was an old friend. I still remember sharing book critiques and recipes with him. He brought an absolutely delicious dessert to his parent's home to share on an informal get-together.

During Bill's illness my husband Gordon and his sidekick dog Lulu would stop by to see Bill. Bill and Lulu had a mutual admiration society going. Dogs have a pretty good instinct on character, and Lulu loved Bill.

Gordon and I offer our heartfelt condolences to all of Bill's family.

“ Billy was my first love, we dated five years but the love lasted a lifetime. In the Hiers I found a second family. His mother, father, brothers and sister are so dear to my heart. May they find peace, get some rest and eventually acceptance. I love you all very much.

“ Sorry to hear about Billy. May he rest in peace. I haven't seen him in years but grew up with him in the neighborhood and up through high school. His brother David and I were friends and the same age. Being around his parents house, and visiting and hanging out with David, I knew Billy and always looked up to him. A good guy. Again, sorry to hear about his passing.

“ Billy was a wonderful childhood friend. He is the epitome of kindness. Cancer may have taken his physical body, but not his Spirit or his Soul. Go rest high on God's Mountain, Billy. God needs you. 🙏🌟🌟🙏

Bill was a wonderful friend and former colleague. We spent countless hours negotiating pilot, flight attendant and dispatcher contracts at ASA/Delta Connection. We kept in touch and met for lunch recently in October, November and December. It is hard to believe he is gone so soon. RIP my friend. Chuck
