“ I met Mr Clower and his wife a few times when they came to visit Bonnie and Donna at Troy University. It was at that moment that I realized that he was a Godly man who had raised 3 beautiful, loving and Godly daughters.

My only regret is that I did not have an opportunity to get to know him better. His daughter, Bonnie was instrumental in sharing Jesus Christ with me.

“ I first met Curt Clower and his family at Forest Hills Baptist Church on Welcome All Rd, in College Park, Ga., in the early 1970's. Curt was a strong Christian pillar in the Church that I highly respected as an outstanding Christian role model. Though I moved to Texas, in the early 1980's, my parents lived in Sharpsburg, Georgia, not far from Curt's new Church, Flat Creek Baptist. I did keep in touch with Curt over the years, visiting with my wife on occasion at Flat Creek Baptist, and sending his family Christmas cards. The last time I saw Curt was at my father's (Bill Jones) funeral. Curt was one of the pallbearers.

Over the last few weeks Curt has been really on my mind and I was going to call him, or send him and his family a letter. A few nights ago, I had a dream. In my dream, I was sitting in a restaurant eating and a very young man came up to me and started a discussion. As soon as he started talking, I knew it was Curt Clower, but, a very young Curt Clower. We talked for a while about our families and the past and then Curt said to me “well it's my time to go now”. We shook hands and hugged, and as Curt walked away, I knew what Curt meant by “his time to go”. When I woke the next morning, I immediately went and searched Curt Clower's name on the internet. The first thing that I found was Curt's Obituary.

I would have dismissed this dream about Curt and his passing, as a coincidence, if it had not been for another dream I had a number of years ago. In this dream, I was also eating in a restaurant and a very young Bonnie (around 16 years old) came up and sat down with me. We also discussed our families and the past and she also said “well it's my time to go now”. At that time I didn't think anything about my dream. However, a few months later I found out that Bonnie had passed away.

Now, I know, that both Curt and Bonnie came to me in my dreams to say good bye.

It was very sad to find out that Curt had passed away, but, I know that both Curt and Bonnie are rejoicing in heaven with Jesus!

They will be forever missed to those of us still on this earth!

“ Here's a fishing story!!!

One of the best memories I have of Mr. Clower is leaving at about 5:30 a.m. with him to go fishing at Lake Lanier. We got there and in about 90 minutes each had our limit of crappie. We each had 3 cane poles in the boat. His family had just gotten him a fish finder for Father's day and he was eager to use it. He turned it on and a few minutes later said.. "now according to this fish finder we should be catching all kinds of fish right now." no sooner than the words left his mouth all 6 cane poles were attached by big crappie. I'd never seen someone bait a hook so fast as Curt Clower. The cooler was full!! As we were arranging the fish in the cooler he said, "Put the biggest ones on top so some of my buddies at the boat ramp will see them."

Although I have not spoken with him in almost 30 years, he left a big impression on me. One of the nicest, godly people I've known.

“ Kim and family, My sincere condolences for your loss. I am going to miss this wonderful Christian man and his beautiful smile. He was always teasing us about passing through his SS class to make coffee. I will miss that too. What a blessing he was to everyone that knew him, and to hundreds of those he visited regularly. Well done faithful servant. Absent from the body, present with the Lord. What a comfort to know he is with our Savior. Prayers for all of you to feel the warmth of our Savior's love, that only he can give, In the days ahead.
