“ What an inspiration this man of God was to me. As a young preacher, Brother Bill - my mentor - taught me some valuable lessons that I will not only carry with me to my grave, but will endeavor to share with others just as Bill did for me. I'll never forget his experience, his etiquette, his distinction, and his friendship. Oh, how I loved the man... And I can't wait for him to show me what he knows about heaven!

“ Earl, you will be sorely missed. But, it was your turn to go home. I remember our talks about that. Your are being buried with alot of good Christian folks. I'm related to most of them on both sides of my family. Oh, Earl, you will be missed.

“A truly great man has gone home. I have known Bill for 40+ years and he loved gospel music as much as I do. Hard to think I will never play for him again. He is already singing in that great heavenly choir with his loved performers. He is now face to face with his Lord Jesus. Rest in peace, dear Bill. We left here will take care of Jean for you. You will always be in our hearts.
