“ He was a good guy and turned into a wonderful Man. He got lucky when he found Leesa. He was my friend, and will forever be missed.

“ It has been 4 months and as I lay here in our room that we shared together I am just torn apart. We were supposed to spend our lives growing old together. I am supposed to "not be sad because it is over but be glad it happened". Although that thought gives some comfort there are times when the sadness of your illness and our challenges together with one thing after another overcomes me. At least we always had each other to share our rough times with. Being alone is rough sometimes. I will try to remember our early times together when we had our best memories and dreams of what could have been. We somehow found each other late in life and it seemed it was meant to be. We were lucky I suppose to have 10 wonderful years together. I love you and miss you B and someday will be in your arms again. Love you Sweetie.

“ I extend my deepest sympathy and condolences to you and your family. Words seem inadequate to express my feelings on hearing of the death of your husband and I am here to support you in this season of grief. No one can truly know what you are experiencing in this time of loss. Please accept my condolences and know you are in my thoughts and prayers.

During this time of sorrow, may the gentle presence of your endearing family and the caring love of your faithful friends sustain and help to comfort you. God will provide you with peace and comfort to endure the days ahead. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. Be Blessed and God Loves You! See you soon!

Love Always,

“ Billy, I never got to know you. I had hoped we would talk soon. I thought often of you and Tammy and wished circumstances had not kept the four of us apart. May your family find comfort in fond memories and God grant them solace in this sad time. Rest in peace, brother.

“ Billy, you touched my heart, you touched my life and I will never be the same because of that. My prayers are with your wife and family and the ones you left behind to carry on. You had an amazing journey and I am so glad I got to be a small part of that. I will never forget what an incredible giving, loving, man you were and how you were always there for your friends. You will never be far because you left impressions on our lives and hearts. God bless you. May you rest in peace and spread your joy all over heaven.

“ I Thessalonians 4

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

We love you Billy and we will all hear that Trumpet sound very soon and we will all be caught up together with the Lord. What a wonderful day that will be.

“ Leesa,

So so sorry to hear about the sudden death of Billy. What a horribly sad couple of years it has been for you and your family. You are a strong independent woman and with support from your close family, and friends you will also make it through this awful time in your life.

My prayers are not worth much but you know you are always in my thoughts.

“ To Billy's family, I am so very sorry for your loss. I met Billy way back when he was in 10th grade in my brother's class and I was in junior high. I have seen him off and on through the years, and he has always been a wonderful person and he will be missed by so many people. I will be praying for all of you and my brother Ed Johnson Class of '75 Morrow High School sends his condolences also. He was a friend of Billy's.

“ I am truly sorry to hear about your loss. God soon promises to end all human suffering in the near future. No longer will sickness, pain, or death affect mankind. We also look to the chance to welcome back our lost loved ones again, here on earth, under perfect conditions. May these bible promises comfort the family in the many days to come.-Revelation 21:4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8

“ Your silly laugh, your crooked smile, your dancing eyes, your big heart and your sweet sweet gentle soul have left a lasting imprint forever in our hearts. Our journey started with you and David, along that road you found Leesa, at the fork ya'll met me and the four of us went forward and never looked back. Our dear friend, you left us way too soon, our journey together was not complete, the four of us had plans. The depth of our friendship goes beyond words. One that is very rare and as I was trying to explain it to someone, they said to me, now I know the meaning of “it’s better to have loved and lost than to have never loved at all.” Billy, we love you now and forever. As planned, no matter how near or far we will take care of your sunshine, Leesa. May God bring you peace as you watch over and protect those you love. Always, Kim & David
