“ With so much sympathy from Bob Allen’s daughter, Susan Hutchison. As the two oldest members of the church he spoke of Billie often in the years before he passed this past February. Mrs. Joiner was so admired and loved by many.

“ The tribute given today was so special. I was reminded of the friendship that Jerry and I had with Billie and JT. The guys worked on projects around the church and sometimes at people's homes. J. T. would come by the house early in the morning and Jerry would grab his tool bucket and hammer, climb in J.T.'s truck and off they would go. Praying for the family as they cherish the memories of Billie and her beautiful smile.
