“ My condolences to her family. Yasuko was such a sweet person. She loved dancing with Hotlanta Squares and other groups. When I was tired and wanted to sit a dance out, she would say get on up and dance! She was an inspiration and a joy to know.

“ What a joy it was to see Yasuko squaring up. She was always willing to fill in when an extra dancer was needed. She was always there supporting her friend Jessie. She also took a joke when I told her she could be my dance partner, when Jessie was calling, but she had to stand up. We will miss her smiling face on the dance floor and her delicious chili she always brought to the Callers & Cuers Memorial Dance.
